ME DAY-DREAM.

DEDICATED TO MRS. ADDIE AND KATE BURK
AND MRS. LUCY LOWE.

I sat and gazing, at the snow
and hills beyond.

For many hours I was rushing a train of memories past.

RESOLVED, That our heartiest sympathy is extended to her bereaved parents and brother in their sad hours of grief.

RESOLVED, That we set a pace in our record book sacred to her memory,
and therein shall be inscribed,
"THIS IS TO MY DAUGHTER,

MISS MARY PHILLIPS, COM-MITTED TO GOD."

RESOLVED, That a copy of these resolutions be transmitted to her beloved parents and inscribed in the Hartford Herald.

RESOLVED, That we know not but its sweetness yet o'er
my way a path.

Path checked its full completeness, I can never tell it all.

You are my joy, my gleaming, you save my soul.

I know I was a dreamer, over hopes
that could not be.

I know friends kindly lingered, around my
bed of pain.

I know I was a heart-felt prayer, that brought me life again.

These day's for them in knowing their kind dear sweet words of comfort, have cheered me in my grief.

I'll live for you who have no strength to live for me.

I know I was a dreamer, over hopes
that could not be.

I know friends kindly lingered, around my
bed of pain.

I know I was a heart-felt prayer, that
brought me life again.

These day's for them in knowing their kind

We welcome Mr. Foster and his family to Hartford. Mr. J. W. Lewis left his home in Hopkinsville last Thursday. He preached many excellent sermons while here, and his discourses were well attended, and well received. As a pulpit orator, he is a reformer and a teacher; as a minister, conscientious and Christian-like. He bore with him the good will of the people when he left.

While Mr. J. W. Anderson was in Hopkinsville he noted the even-tempered and kind manner of the Union Sunday School. The school is now in full swing. Uncle Billie will move to Hartford about the first of April. He is a first-class citizen in every way, and will be a valuable addition to Hartford's citizenship. We welcome Mr. Foster and his family to Hartford.

As a pulpit orator, he is a reformer and a teacher; as a minister, conscientious and Christian-like. He bore with him the good will of the people when he left.

While Mr. J. W. Anderson was in Hopkinsville he noted the even-tempered and kind manner of the Union Sunday School. The school is now in full swing. Uncle Billie will move to Hartford about the first of April. He is a first-class citizen in every way, and will be a valuable addition to Hartford's citizenship. We welcome Mr. Foster and his family to Hartford.

The most air castles built by some of our neighboring burgs on the originally proposed line are planned in the same style as the one at McHenry, with a few minor differences. The opening of the McHenry line will be on the 1st of April.

Mr. Anderson made his talk very interesting, and the audience was greatly interested in his talk.

Rev. J. W. Lewis left his home in Hopkinsville last Thursday. He preached many excellent sermons while here, and his discourses were well attended, and well received. As a pulpit orator, he is a reformer and a teacher; as a minister, conscientious and Christian-like. He bore with him the good will of the people when he left.
